THE DEADLY CYCLONE

Several Persons Killed by Twister in Illinois.

Captain H. J. Ewen Predicts He Will Be Killed at Jackson Tuesday.

GROVER HAS A BOY

Streator, Ill., July 18.—A tornado at evening killed five persons, injured a score of others and caused a property loss of $2,000,000. The dead were: Harry Doyle, Nels H. Hivens, B. Purcell, Charles Snyder, W. D. Row, colored.

Many houses were unroofed and otherwise damaged. Telephone and telegraph lines were nearly all blown down.

The following are injured: George Doyle, Mrs. Doyle, Bessie Boucher, Charles Snyder, Fred Crone, fractured skull, Mrs. Crone, Mrs. Smith, Miss Smith, Captain Peabody and wife, Ralph Boucher, Mrs. Henry Pease and baby, George Hunter, George Doyle's little child, three children of A. J. Daugherty and a man employed on the latter's farm.

ARTIST WHISTLER DEAD.

London, July 18.—James Abbott McNeill Whistler, American artist, died at the age of 69 years. His death came unexpectedly, although for some time he had been seriously ill. This morning's papers publish elaborate obituary notices, recognizing the distinguished and unique personality of Whistler, whose genius greatly dominated European art of the present generation. While admitting that it is for posterity to decide his exact position as a painter, it is generally conceded that he was a consummate etcher.

AT MEDOTA.

Medota, Ill., July 18.—Four persons were killed and ten were seriously injured by a tornado which struck the northern part of Medota last night. The known dead are: Cora Deisler, aged 15; Ora Lony, aged 19; Schamel, aged 13; ——— Schamel, aged 4.

The injured: Mrs. John Wirsherm, Miss Wirsherm, Mrs. Oscar Milligan, Jerome Milligan, Alice Wilson, Edna Austin, James Smith, Henry Schweitzer and Mrs. James Smith.

BEAVERS INDICTED.

New York, July 18.—A bench warrant was issued by Judge Thomas in the United States circuit court of Brooklyn for the arrest of George W. Beavers on an indictment found by the federal grand jury, which charges him with accepting a bribe of $840. It is understood that payments to Beavers were traced back to the purchase by the government of the Brandt-Dean Cash Registering Machine company.

SAYS HE WILL BE KILLED.

Lexington, July 18.—Captain Ewen says he is confident he will be killed Tuesday when he goes to Jackson. He has made all the contributed money over to his wife and arranged all details for his funeral.

A LITTLE GROVER ARRIVES

Buzzards' Bay, July 18.—A son was born today to Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cleveland.

Mr. Farrar Winchester is improving at the I. C. hospital.

HE ROBBED DENTISTS

Slick Thief Gets $125 Worth of Gold From Dr. Ashcraft.

Also Visited Dr. Dabney's Office and Took All He Could Find There

NO OTHER DENTISTS SUFFERED

The quiet, smooth, genteel man who has been stealing gold from divers dentists' parlors in Kentucky for the past week or two appears to have selected a very novel as well as unusual plan for "living easy." Dentists all carry more or less gold in stock, and few of them have been keeping it locked up.

Hereafter, however, a number of them in Paducah, along with many in other cities, will keep their valuables under lock and key. If not in the safe, the "dentist burglar" will likely find his methods unprofitable hereafter, as a widespread warning has been sent out in all directions in the press.

Two Paducah dentists at least are worse off from a visit of the thief, who ever he was. Dr. Allen Ashcraft, whose office is in the Murrell building on Broadway near Sixth, had $125 worth of gold stolen from his cabinet some time between last Saturday and yesterday. He left Saturday for a fishing trip, and did not return until yesterday. He then found that his cabinet had been broken open during his absence and the gold and other valuable material stolen amounting to $125 or more. There was no evidence of how the thief got in, but in other places he has been known to use skeleton keys and crawl through transoms.

Dr. A. S. Dabney, who has his office in the same building, but downstairs, reports that between last Saturday night and Monday about $5 in gold was taken from his cabinet, which was open and did not have to be forced. He did not report the loss because the amount was small and he did not think there was any chance to catch the thief. It is probable the theft in Dr. Ashcraft's office was committed about the same time.

Dr. Will Owen's office is in the same building, but he had his gold locked in his safe which probably saved it for him.

Inquiry at the offices of other local dentists, of which there are half a dozen or more, revealed the fact that no others have missed anything. One method sometimes employed by the thief in other places was to go to a dentist, pretend he wanted some gold filling done and ask to be shown some of the gold. When he finds out where it is kept he knows all he wants to know, and seeing a friend in the street he wants to speak to, saying he will return in a minute he leaves and that is the last of him until he comes back after the office is closed and gets the gold. It is estimated that he has secured over $1,000 worth of gold from dentists in Henderson, Owensboro, Louisville and Paducah, and doubtless he has operated extensively in other cities as well.

PARK THEATER.

CASINO WILL BE DARK NEXT WEEK—POSSIBLY REST OF THE SEASON.

The Casino, at Wallace park, will be dark next week, and possibly the remainder of the season. The Seward show closes there tonight and nothing will occupy the boards next week. Manager English said this afternoon that he did not know what he would have the following week, but possibly nothing. The Casino has not been profitable, in fact, it has lost heavily this season.

PAY CAR HERE.

The I. C. pay car was rushed through today from Cairo via Fulton and arrived at 12 o'clock. All hands are being paid off this afternoon and tonight the merchants expect to do a large business.

Mrs. Lottie Burnham and daughter, Miss Dora Burnham, will go to Kentucky tomorrow to visit.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD

Clearings this week, $740,001
Same week last year, 578,052
Increase, 161,949

Bank clearings again show a remarkably good increase over the same time last year, nearly 25 per cent, and reflects the big business being done by Paducah and vicinity. The total increase for the country was 2 per cent. Wholesale business is good for the season with local merchants, and the same is true with the manufacturers.

Retail trade is showing an increase over the same time last year. Building and repair work is progressing satisfactorily, and real estate is fairly active.

Of the general situation throughout the country Bradstreet says:

Well nigh perfect summer weather helps crops, increasing confidence in fall trade and stimulates retail business. Lower prices for many staples are really an encouraging development.

because favorable to a wider and freer use of products heretofore impracticable under past abnormal conditions. Six months' railway earnings returns—two-thirds of the country's mileage represented—show a gain of over 13 per cent over the best ever recorded, while roads thus far reporting for the first week of July show a gain of nearly 16 per cent. These figures confirm the claim that present business is the largest ever handled for a mid-summer period.

The salient features in trade reports this week are the better tone of trade advices from the southwest, where the feeling grows that a large business will be done. The unsatisfactory outlook for immediate and future supplies of cotton limits activity in cotton manufacturing at the east, short time being the rule at all the leading centers.

The first bale of new cotton was marketed at Houston today.

ANOTHER RURAL ROUTE FOR MCCRACKEN

Washington, D. C., July 18.—Rural free delivery service was today authorized established in McCracken county over another new route today. The new service will cover an area of sixteen square miles, be twenty miles long and serve 522 people.

The above speaks well for the effort made in this county to secure rural free delivery. This will make the fourth route established in McCracken, and it the last one petitioned for. It will begin about Tyler, south of Mechanicsburg, go out the Benton road to Sharpe, Marshall county and return after covering several cross roads, the same route and end where it begins. It will be a good thing for the people of that section.

MAYOR INTERFERES.

ON ACCOUNT OF CHICAGO RIOT PEOPLE ARE WARNED.

Chicago, July 18.—The riotous conduct of the strikers of the Kellogg Switchboard company and their sympathizers during the last four days impelled Mayor Harrison to issue a proclamation last night warning all people to remain away from the scene of the trouble, and calling on the rioters to cease from their work. The proclamation declares that all persons who congregated near the plant or in any other way interfere with the work of the police will be promptly arrested and punished.

The only mixup yesterday occurred at Taylor street and Hermitage avenue. A large crowd of men and boys, pursuing a wagon load of freight sent out by the Kellogg company boarded a street car and ordered the motorman to take them in pursuit of the wagon, and bombarded the car with stones until there was not a pane of glass left in it. The motorman and conductor narrowly escaped injury. A squad of policemen arrived in time to offer them protection.

CAR DELAYS TRAFFIC.—Car No. 64, of the Paducah City Railway Co., was derailed on South Fourth street this afternoon about 2:30 near the city hall and some little delay was occasioned in replacing the wheels on the rails. No damage was done.

Mrs. A. B. Sowell, who has been ill from malarial fever, is better.

DIED IN LOUISVILLE

MR. THOMAS MARTIN EXPIRES FROM A COMPLICATION.

The funeral of the late Thomas H. Martin of Louisville, who has relatives in this city, took place in Louisville this morning, and the remains were taken to Greenville or burial.

Mr. Martin died Thursday night at 9:45 o'clock of a complication of diseases of the liver. He was the youngest of two sons of Campbell and America Martin, being born at Greenville, Ky., February 11, 1839. In 1869 he entered the tobacco business manufacturing, being a member of the firm of H. N. Martin & Co., of which J. R. Martin of this city is a member, which was organized in 1840 and is the oldest concern of the kind in the United States. Four years ago, owing to the growth of their business, they moved their plant from Greenville to Louisville. Two years ago the interests incorporated and Mr. Martin was made one of the vice presidents. He held this office at the time of his death.

Mr. C. M. Martin of this city, a nephew, attended the funeral.

LIBRARY WORK.—The work of Contractor Wm. Karnes on the Carnegie library is almost finished. The marble columns are now being put in position. Work on the interior will probably, however, require considerable more time.

Mrs. Will Staggberg is dangerously ill at her home, 905 Clay street.

NOT YET COMPLETED

Cairo Division Track Laying Still in Progress.

It Will Be Some Little Time Before the Road Is Ready for Traffic.

ILLNESS AMONG R. R. EMPLOYEES

The report that the new Cairo division of the Illinois Central was complete is a mistake, and it will not be for some little time.

Yesterday Messrs. O. M. Dunn, assistant superintendent of southern line of the I. C., and A. Philbrick, superintendent of the Louisville division of the I. C., who went over the new branch, returned about 6 o'clock after having made an inspection as far as it was possible to go. There remains something like a mile of track laying to be done, according to an official statement this morning and on this account the pay car will have to come around via Fulton or Carbondale today and will probably not arrive until tonight.

The work on this division of the road was delayed on account of a shortage in labor and the accident to Tennessee river bridge which made gravel impossible to secure for several days. The track laying will probably be completed in a few days, however so that a train can pass over on slow orders.

There has been more than the usual illness among I. C. employees this year. The illness decreased slightly since 1900 when the hospital was so badly crowded, but this year bids fair to break records. Up to the present date there have been 58 more employees admitted than in 1900 and about 110 more than last year. A great many cases are of slight fever and accidents and fortunately the cases have been scattered and the hospital has not been crowded.

Edgar Trice, a young man employed on the I. C. at Dupoy, Ky., Louisville division, has a narrow escape from fatal injuries yesterday while trying to catch a gravel train near Gravel Switch.

The train was moving rather rapidly and the boy attempted to board it. He caught the handle but failed to reach the step with his feet. He was jerked loose and thrown a considerable distance and narrowly missed being thrown under the wheels. His right wrist and face were injured, the wrist being sprained. He was also slightly bruised about the body. Trice is now at the local hospital and will be able to resume duties in a few days.

The Illinois Central is at present a little short on freight crews and a number of firemen, engineers and conductors who have been laid off are being placed back on duty. The freight traffic always increases in the summer but this year it is heavier than last year and all the men possible to secure are being taken on the Louisville and Memphis divisions of the road. A number of recruits in the firing service are being examined for firemen.

HE WAS WATCHED.

AND DID NOT TAKE THE SLEEPER'S TICKET.

W. E. Foster, a railroad flagman employed on the I. C. between Fulton and Memphis, was arrested here this morning by Officer Buck Whitehurst for the alleged attempted robbery of Andy Smith at a West Broadway saloon. It is alleged that Foster was seen to take the watch from Smith while the latter was sleeping in the rear of the saloon, but seeing that he was being watched, placed the ticker back in the sleeping man's pocket. Officer Whitehurst made the arrest.

MARRIED IN NASHVILLE.

Miss Rachel Gore and Dr. F. T. Tilton, the former of Lone Oak and the latter of Nashville, Ind., were married at Nashville Sunday. The bride is the sister of Dr. R. O. Gore of Lone Oak and is well known here.

MOSTLY OPEN AGAIN

Few Saloons Did Not Ignore the 10:30 Law Last Night

Monday Night the Council Meets in Regular Session at City Hall.

MATTERS ABOUT THE HALL

Most of the saloons kept open last night, as they did before the police commissioners ordered the 10:30 ordinance enforced. They kept open because it was evident from Judge Sanders' remarks yesterday that he would decide the ordinance inoperative, and even if warrants were issued today they would be dismissed Monday. Some of the saloons never remain open longer than midnight, but most of those in the habit of running all night did so last night.

A negro woman giving the name of Anna Belle Dickerson was arrested last night and locked up because her actions indicated she was either demented or under the influence of some drug. She called at the city hall at different times during the day and made various complaints, which aroused the suspicions of the officers. One was that someone had a racoon which "grinned" at her constantly, and another that a number of colored people were "mocking her." She seems to be well educated, but was locked up and kept the lockup in an uproar most of the night. Today she still seems to be "dotty," and will be kept in prison until she recovers. The officers think she was full of coke when arrested. She was fined $5 and costs today in police court.

Mayor Yeiser will recommend, at the suggestion of the owner, appraisers to value the property of Mr. George Bernhard on Broadway desired for opening Fountain avenue. The city offered Mr. Bernhard $900, which he refused. Monday it will be moved in the council that appraisers settle the dispute and save the trouble and expense of a condemnation suit.

Warren Schultz, a traveling man, reported to the police this morning that his telescope containing clothing and other articles had disappeared. He desired to leave on the Dick Fowler for Cairo, and left, and a short time afterward Patrol Wagon Driver John Austin found the missing grip at the I. C. depot, where it had been carried through mistake.

Monday night the council will meet in regular session and the usual amount of business may be expected to come up. So far as is known there is nothing of unusual importance to be considered, as the 10:30 ordinance will probably be declared invalid and thus dispense with the necessity of trying to repeal it.

The sanitary condition of the city is very bad and the police officers are today working harder than ever. They have been supplied with books containing blank notices to be filled and left at premises that need attention, and warrants will be sworn out against all who fail to comply.

The ground near North Twelfth street owned by Attorney W. D. Greer is being laid off into blocks by Contractor E. C. Terrell, and promises to become one of the best additions the city has.

William Chamblin, colored, was today arrested by Officer Hurley for cursing and abusing Sallie Maning, colored. The offense is alleged to have occurred more than a week ago, but Chamblin skipped out and returned today.

TODAY'S TEMPERATURE.

The thermometer today has registered less than has been recorded in several days, the mercury marking the highest at 2 o'clock at only 91, with 78 the highest last night. Today a light breeze has been blowing, making the heat more bearable. The weather predictions for Kentucky are fair and cooler tonight and Sunday.

Miss Carrie Griffin will return tomorrow from a visit to Benton.

DEATH IN TENNESSEE

DR. H. N. SHERRILL DIES AT UNION CITY.

News of the death of Dr. H. N. Sherrill of Union City, Tenn., father of Messrs. H. V. and C. H. Sherrill of the local firm of Sherrill-Russell Lumber Co., at 6 o'clock this morning, was received here this morning.

The deceased was about 70 years of age and leaves a wife and four sons, one in Chicago, two here and one residing in Mississippi. The deceased had been ill more than a week, but died rather suddenly of heart trouble. He was born near Lebanon, Tenn., but had lived at Union City nearly all his life. Messrs. Sherrill of this city had been at his bedside for several days. No funeral arrangements have yet been made, but the funeral will probably take place tomorrow.

WANT GAME STOPPED

COMMITTEE MAY GO OUT TO STOP IT SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

The Good Government league met last night at the Methodist church and it was decided to have the committee call on Captain Gage and ask him to call off tomorrow's game with Clarksville. If he refuses it is threatened to take out a committee to the grounds and attempt to break it up.

No action was taken in regard to the 10:30 closing law, as Judge Sanders has not finally passed on it.

HENDERSON WINS.

Clarksville, Tenn., July 18.—The fans were treated to a pitchers' battle yesterday in which Holm and Harris each struck out ten men. Holm also made a home run. Henderson 6 runs, 4 hits and 8 errors; Bolin and Warner. Clarksville 3 runs, 6 hits and 6 errors; Harris and Holmes.

THIS DOES US GOOD.

Jackson, Tenn., July 18.—The home club defeated the "Top-notchers" yesterday. Jackson 7 runs, 13 hits and 2 errors. Cairo 1 run, 5 hits and 4 errors. Batteries, Cole and Pettit; Clark, Dickens and Ratledge.

Paducah has the only team in the league that the Hoppers, which have occupied a permanent position at the tail end for some time, can beat. They turned the trick yesterday afternoon again at Wallace park by a score of 9 to 1, and did it well. The Hoppers ought to petition the league to allow them to stay here and they'd soon be at the top. No matter who was responsible for yesterday's fiasco Captain Gage got the credit for the defeat, for he hobbled around in center field when there was a man in uniform on the bench who could have done much better, and apparently couldn't even pick up the ball when he managed to find it.

His bum playing disgusted the fans early in the game and the contest was almost featureless with the exception of Paducah's ten errors.

Catcher Street, for the first time, played a rotten game behind the bat for the visitors, and apparently didn't care. Best pitched a good game for Paducah, and is fast proving himself to be one of the best pitchers in the league, but the support he gets is enough to send him home in disgust. Yesterday he struck out eleven men. Seven scores were made by the visitors in the fifth inning, on a base on balls, three hits and a bunch of errors.

CURES WEAK MEN FREE.

Insures Love and a Happy Home for All

How any man may quickly cure himself after years of suffering from sexual weakness, loss of vitality, night losses, varicocele, etc., and enlarged small weak organs to full size and vigor simply send your name and address to Dr. Knapp Medical Co., 616 Hull Building, Detroit, Mich., and they will gladly send free receipt with full directions so that any man may easily cure himself at home. This is certainly a most generous offer and the following extracts taken from their daily mail show what men think of their generosity.

"Dear Sir:—Please accept my sincere thanks for years of recidive. I have given your treatment a thorough test and the benefit has been extraordinary. It has completely braced me up. I am just as vigorous as when a boy and I am now realizing how happy I am."

"Dear Sir:—Your method worked beautifully. Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sir:—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed, and can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men. I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor."

All correspondence is strictly confidential, mailed in plain sealed envelope. The receipt is free for asking and they want every man to have it.

Clarksville, is a country boy 18 years old. It is said he keeps in practice killing birds with stones.

It is apparent that nothing is to be done to give Paducah a winning team. In fact, it is not an easy matter this late in the season, as most of the best players are placed for the season and cannot be induced to come here.

Vincennes, formerly of the K. I. T. league, has joined the Indiana State league, composed of Vincennes, Washington, Linton, Princeton and Oakland City in Indiana and Mt. Carmel, Ill.

Snyder, a crack pitcher from Cincinnati, was signed yesterday by wire and ordered to report at Paducah. This now gives Hopkinsville one of the best pitching corps in the league, i. e., Keeler, Bomar, Snyder, Edwards, Morris, Chatham and Eggleston. —Hopkinsville News Era.

Niekens, who was here with New Decatur, Ala., and pitched against Paducah, has made good with Nashville, in one of the larger leagues. In a game between Nashville and Shreveport he pitched six innings and set them down with only one hit, winning the game after it was apparently lost.

It seems some of the baseball editors who have been kicking about and criticizing the individual playing of various members of the Paducah club prefer to roast the whole push, those who play good ball as well as those who don't. Give the boys who are there with the goods credit and those who are not their dues.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of consumption and throat and lung troubles without losing the great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we call your attention to Hoesche's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe coughs, bronchitis, croup—and especially for consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cents size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. At all druggists. DuBois, Kolb & Co.

A WONDERFUL BOAT

The Woodruff on Her Way to Paducah Now.

She Has Been in the Service Thirty Years and Still Looks New.

HAS MACHINERY OF ALL KINDS

The government snagboat E. A. Woodruff is due at Paducah shortly for the first time in many months.

The Woodruff is very peculiar in appearance at the first glance, looking like a boat composed of two sharp prowed hulls. The fore part is covered with derricks and tackle for the lifting of heavy weights, while the rear part is fixed up with a boiler deck on which the men can sit.

The duty of the boat is to make periodical trips from Pittsburg to Paducah to remove snags and other obstructions from the bottom of the stream during a low stage. The Woodruff has been thus employed for thirty years, although by the looks of the boat one would imagine her to be a new one just off the docks.

During her long career there has been only one man in charge of her, who is Captain W. H. Christian. The crew is varied with the condition of the river.

The steamer is 200 feet long and 76 feet wide, but the most wonderful part of the boat are the two strong steel hulls that shoot forward and stretch for 60 feet in front of the boilers. On these bows are two large spar derricks and a frame known to the crew as shears. On the extreme point of the bow, one point resting on each of the twin bows, is another huge "A" frame. This one is known as the wrecking hook and is used in raising parts of sunken crafts from the bottom of the river.

The machinery of the great boat is naturally wonderful in its construction. There are engines of various kinds reared over the boat, each having its peculiar function to perform in the good work of keeping the Ohio free from snags and obstructions to navigation. The rest of the paraphernalia is correspondingly wonderful in its make up. There are ropes and chains of every dimension and tools of every description with which the men perform their work. The boat is now on her way down to Paducah.

CIRCUS TRAIN WRECKED

ONE KILLED AND SEVERAL HURT IN IT.

Shelbyville, Ill., July 18.—Wallace's circus train was wrecked at Shelbyville. Four cars were thrown from the track at a high place near the viaduct and almost completely torn to pieces. Twelve men were badly injured, at least one of them fatally. All of the surgeons of Shelbyville were called out to wait upon the wounded.

The dead: Ed Christian; engine injured; died at noon.

The injured: Leon Stone; ribs broken; internally injured; fatally.

James Johnson; leg broken.

William Cook; knee shattered.

J. W. Frisby; arm badly out.

Thirty others, bruised and cut, but not seriously.

Two sleeping cars containing 110 people were thrown down an embankment and the cars demolished. Seven fine performing horses had their legs broken and were killed. The wreck was caused by uncoupling, one section running down an incline and smashing into some freight cars on the transfer track between the Chicago and Eastern Illinois and the Big Four railroads.

WHITE STAR COFFEE

When buying coffee, remember that a tin can will preserve in a correct way the much prized qualities of the choicest varieties—that it is the unity and flavor which it is important for you to have—that a coffee marketed upon its reputation is more likely to represent a legitimate value than one that is sold in some other way.

Every cup brewed from any of the White Star varieties has that color—that odor—and

DEFENDING THE CRIME.

It is a fine, a very little thing, and for the crime he sought to make friends. By passing on the ground, one's hand a ring. This done, you'd think just resting on one's feet. But, law appealed, 'twas much a church affair. The two were found who'd caused this bit of strife. Though but a kiss he stole, no more I swear. The sentence of the rector was, "For life." —Roy Farrel, Green in New York Times.

TALENTED BLOUNTIST.

Miss Mary Krava, daughter of Jackson, Tenn., an expert of ability, will arrive Monday afternoon to visit the Misses. Toward the passing of the Broadway Methodist church on North Seventh street. Miss Krava is a graduate in education of Vanderbilt university and also of the Chicago training school. She has unusual talent and has been very successful with recitals in a number of places. She has also a pleasing personality, which adds to her graceful art. A daughter will have an opportunity to hear Miss Krava in some of her clever work, since she will appear at the Broadway Methodist church Tuesday evening in a recital for the Parsonsage and Home Mission Society of this church. She will give a most interesting program the first of the evening, followed by a rendition of "Euch Arden," with musical accompaniment furnished by Miss Virginia Sewell.

THE BOSS WORM MEDICINE.

H. P. Knappe, druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child which was sick and threw up all food; could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and it brought up 119 worms from the child. It's the boss worm medicine in the world." White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

"MY PARTING WORDS"

SAID P. M. ARTHUR, AND THEN DROPPED DEAD.

Winnipeg, Man., July 18—P. M. Arthur, grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, dropped dead while speaking at the banquet closing the annual union convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which has been in session for the last few days.

Mr. Arthur had just risen to respond to a toast and repeated the words: "It may be my parting words to many of you," when he fell backward and expired.

CONDEMNED MURDERER CONFESES BEFORE EXECUTION.

Jerry Graves, one of the two men hanged at Marion, Ill., last week for the murder of Nellie Reichelderfer, made a confession concerning another crime also.

This confession was made one hour and thirty six minutes before he was hanged and was made to Rev. Tatum in the presence of County Clerk Dodd who wrote it down and took Graves' signature and oath.

Graves wrote with a firm steady hand, though he had just donned his death shroud.

THE PERFECT LIVER MEDICINE.

Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years and can cheerfully recommend it is the most perfect liver medicine and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

REPULSIVE FEATURES.

Blackheads, pimples, greasy faces and muddy complexions, which are so common among women, especially girls at a certain age, destroying beauty, disfiguring and making repulsive features which would otherwise appear attractive and refined, indicate that the liver is out of order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver and establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

American Boys Would Resent This.

Sport is apparently not considered a necessary element in a French school-boy's education. An order has just gone forth from the director general of elementary schools forbidding masters to allow their pupils to play leap frog, football, rounders, tops, hop-scotch and other games.

EASY ROAD TO VICTORY.

The Republicans of Kentucky see victory ahead, and now that the convention is over are preparing to put up a good and winning fight. The party is solid. Reports to the contrary are merely efforts of the enemy to make it appear that harmony does not exist in the party. Every Republican knows better. It is always possible to find a few disgruntled men of every party in every campaign who refuse to support the principles they profess, but in the Republican party it is always too few to affect the party, and the party can well afford to get along without them.
The Republicans enter the contest with a good, clean ticket and a badly disrupted opponent. This should not deter them in their campaign work, however, for while we believe we are going to win a glorious victory, all should be enthusiastically in favor of making it as overwhelming as possible and work hard to make it so.

Yesterday's St. Louis Globe-Democrat
gives the following good advice:
"Harmony among the Republicans of Kentucky will insure that state for Roosevelt and state officers. Democratic divisions are widening on questions of principles as well as individuals. The present prospect is that the Cleveland and the Bryan element will fight each other next year, more for supremacy within the party than with any expectation of success. Mr. Cleveland will not be passive in 1904 nor confine himself to voting the Republican ticket. He will accept the Democratic nomination if tendered. At all events, he expects to figure prominently in making the ticket and platform.
Mr. Bryan will be equally active and self-assertive. He will not forgive Democrats who voted against him unless they acknowledge they were wrong. Mr. Cleveland and his associates propose to demonstrate by the action of the national convention that they were right in 1896 and 1900.
"But the probability that the Democrats of Kentucky, as well as of other states, will be arrayed against each other next year is less significant if the Republicans of the state also propose to fight each other. Kentucky Republicans were deliberately robbed of the state offices during the Goebel period. On a fair vote the state is closely divided, and the same will be true in 1904."

and an

Republican and Maryland has been usually Republican during the last ten years. The Republicans of Kentucky are united on the principles of the party and on Roosevelt. Minor differences ought to be laid aside. It may be assumed that the clash of merely personal ambitions will stop. It is a mistake, a waste of valuable strength.
Kentucky Republicans have fine opportunity for 1904. The use of it depends on themselves."

Over in Illinois the "dram shop"
law has been amended in such a way as to practically dispense with the whiskey agent. It requires a license of $500 a year for any person who on his own behalf or as agent for another solicits a person to buy or contracts to furnish for future delivery, spirituous or vinous liquors in less quantities than one gallon, except persons having dram shop license or druggist's or physician's license. Such solicitors can procure a license only by presenting to the county board a petition signed by a majority of the legal voters of the county, which practically makes it impossible. An Illinois exchange in commenting on the new law says: "This will effectually do away with the whiskey agent who comes around to the consumer with samples and takes orders for liquor to be shipped from a jobber or wholesale house. It will also stop the C. O. D. express business, where the order is taken by an agent and the goods delivered afterwards." It appears something is the matter with Illinois. You have to pay a license to hunt or to fish over there, or sell goods there.
By next year they will probably require a license to take a drink, or to live in the state.

A serious question likely to be sprung at any time is just what condition the city is in by reason of the alleged irregularities in passing and repealing ordinances enacted by the municipal boards. It is claimed that nearly every ordinance, or at least many of them, is invalid for the same reason that the 10:30 ordinance will likely be adjudged invalid. The charter specifies that certain forms must be gone through with before an ordinance becomes effective. For instance, it must be read twice before each board and recorded in a certain way, and if the ordinance is not copied as prescribed by charter it is no more valid than if it has not been read and passed the number of times required.
The municipal boards should make an investigation and find out just where the city stands. It may be none of the ordinances supposed to have become effective since the second class charter went into effect is a law, and if not the trouble cannot be remedied any too soon.

Those who are inclined to make mountains out of molehills and to periodically discover marauding nests are destined to receive very little satisfaction over the publications relative to alleged irregularities in the war department contracts let under Gen.
Alger. The general, who is now a United States senator from Michigan, is out in an interview in which he says: "If there was any corruption in the war department during the time when I was secretary, or if there was any reason for thinking that there might be such corruption, I knew nothing of it, and I do not believe there was any such corruption. The assertion made here is a very broad one, and the men who make the charges and the paper that published them will be held to the strictest accountability."

Marconi announces that he can send wireless messages without even the aid of the high towers now used to receive and send them. He claims he has just perfected the instrument, and can send messages skipping from wave to wave across the ocean without a single interruption. The messages, if what he asserts is true, will no longer have to be sent from a high elevation, but may be sent from a table or anything else. Thus we progress year after year. One thing that causes skepticism, however, is that with all this wonderful "wireless" telegraphy
the telegraph men are still spending millions a year for telegraph wires and cables.

A McLean county woman has just drawn the prize for valuable stock. A cow and hog she maimed through spite had to be killed and she was prosecuted by the owner. The court assessed a fine of $35 and sentenced her to one year in jail. There is no penalty too severe for those who wantonly practice cruelty on dumb brutes, especially those who are such friends to ind.

ago, in which the city prosecutor
wanted the city to assume jurisdiction, and the county attorney wanted the case transferred to the circuit court, where it finally was sent.
The Owensboro police court also declined to take jurisdiction.

Talking about the Kisheneff massacre petition, what's the matter with getting up a petition on account of the cruel treatment the Paducah baseball club receives every afternoon it plays?

HE IS IMPROVING

Mr. Walter Ledford Not Yet
Entirely Recovered.

Man at the City Hospital Will Have to Receive Donations of Skin.

Richard Taylor is the name of an engineer who is in a pitiable condition at the city hospital, and will in all probability have to undergo the grafting process if he ever again has any skin on his back. City Physician Rivers says it will be several weeks before the flesh has sufficiently healed to enable the grafting to begin, and it may be that volunteers will have to be called for, as it will require a great deal of cuticle and is probable the doctor will be unable to get sufficient from Taylor's own body for the purpose.

The patient came up from Union City, Tenn. He was running a wheat thresher and separator, when the beam broke down and pinned him against the fire door and hot end of the boiler, his flesh cooking for fully 15 minutes
before he was rescued.

Mr. Walter A. Ledford, who fell from a street car here a few weeks ago and was thought to be fatally hurt, has returned from a trip to Trigg county, and has not yet recovered. His case is a most peculiar one.
He yet declares that he was not on a street car on the night of the accident, and was not injured. In other ways he remembers everything, even the names of the customers and the amounts cash owes. He is employed by the Paducah Loan company.

ing from a painful injury received by the right.

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS

Reveals That "Pe-ru-na is Calculated to Tone up the System, Restore the Functions and Procure Health."

SO SAYS PROF. L. J. MILLER, CHEMIST.

Prof. L. J. Miller, late Professor of Chemistry and Botany of the High School of Ypsilanti, Mich., writes from 327 N. Clark Street, Chicago, Ill., as follows:
"As several of my friends have spoken to me of the favorable results obtained through the use of Peruna, especially in cases of catarrh, I examined it most thoroughly to learn its contents.
"I found it composed of extracts of herbs and barks of most valuable medicinal qualities combined with other ingredients, delicately balanced, calculated to tone up the system, restore the functions and procure health.
"I consider Peruna one of the most skillfully and scientifically prepared medicines, which the public can use with safety and success."—PROF. L. J.
MILLER.

"Builds up the System."
Hon. Joseph H. Ridgeway, Secretary of the American Anti-Treat Society, writes the following letter from the Grand Central Hotel, St. Paul, Minn.:
"It is with great pleasure that I endorse Peruna as an honest medicine, competent to do all it claims. I have used it several times and know
of nothing that cures so completely, and at the same time
builds up the system.
"I have recommended it to a number of my friends and always feel that I do them a service for I know how satisfactory the results invariably are. I only wish every family had a bottle—it would save much sickness and doctor bills."—Joseph H. Ridgeway.

"Feel Better Than for Five Years."
Mr. James B. Taylor, Roberts, Ind.,
writes:
"I am at the present time entirely well. I can eat anything I ever could.
I took five bottles of Peruna, and feel better now than I have for five years.
I have doctored with other doctors off and on for fifteen years, so I can recommend your medicine very highly for stomach troubles. I take great pleasure in thanking you for your free advice and Peruna."—James B. Taylor.

"I Enjoy my Meals as I Used to."
Mr. J. W. Pritchard, Wolf Lake, Ind.,
writes:
"I am pleased to say that I have been cured of catarrh of the stomach by Peruna. I could hardly eat anything that agreed with me. Before I would get half through my meal my stomach would fill with gas causing me much distress and unpleasant feelings for an hour or two after each meal. But, thanks to your Peruna, I am now completely cured, and can eat anything I want to without any of the distressing symptoms. I can now enjoy my meals as I used to, and it is all due to Dr.
Hartman and his wonderful medicine,
Peruna.
"It has been one year since I was cured, and I am at O. K. yet, so I know I am cured."—J. W. Pritchard.

Dyspepsia is a very common phase of summer catarrh. A remedy that will cure catarrh of one location will cure it anywhere. Peruna cures catarrh where-ever located. That it is a prompt and permanent cure for catarrh of the stomach the above letters testify.
If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

LOST HIS WIFE

POLICE RECEIVE TELEPHONE MESSAGE FROM INDIANA.

Captain Henry Bailey this afternoon received a long distance telephone message from Mt. Vernon, Ind., asking that search be made for the wife and 6 year old daughter, Lucy, of George W. Knowles. It is alleged the mother ran away with a man named Cooper, and there is reason to think they came here. The child is wanted, and the police are asked to secure it if possible. It is not desired to arrest the woman.

Friends here have received notice that Miss Lizzie Hook is ill at Hardinsburg, Ky.

CURIOSITY.

THE MOTIVE THAT LEADS TO KNOWLEDGE.

They say curiosity once killed a cat, but if it were not for curiosity little progress would be made. A Texan tells the following good story about his curiosity and what he learned about food: "One day down at the store I noticed a yellow package with a curious name, 'Grape-Nuts.' The name fascinated me and aroused my curiosity. I didn't like to display my ignorance by asking, so I bought a package and took it home, where I read all about it. When wife and I tried it we thought it delightful and commenced using it morning and evening with cream.

"Before this I had suffered from lack of assimilation of food and my stomach was so weak that what I ate for breakfast seemed to lie there a long time before being digested. I was usually in distress and had no appetite for dinner. All this has changed since my diet has been largely on Grape-Nuts. I have gained steadily in strength, health and weight, sleep soundly at night and get up refreshed in the morning. Wife says I look like a new man, and she herself has been greatly benefited by the food.

"After my breakfast of Grape-Nuts I don't need anything in the middle of the day as a rule, but I always keep a little of the food handy and if I have any sense of exhaustion I just take a few mouthfuls of it. It gives me immediate relief and does not destroy my appetite for dinner, but seems to sharpen it. It surprises me that we never seem to tire of Grape-Nuts, although we have now been using it for several years." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

SHOWED TRUE SCOTCH THRIFT.

Wise Man Would Have Monument Serve Two Purposes.

Among Andrew Carnegie's collection of anecdotes illustrative of Scotch character one of the oldest follows: Sir John Cave was in Glasgow in 1807, at a time when the populace had it in mind to honor Nelson with a monument. Sir John attended a public dinner one evening when the monument came in for a good deal of discussion. Finally the visitor was asked for his views as to the inscription. "I think," said Sir John, "that the style of the inscription should be eminently simple and plain. What I should put on the monument would be just the words, 'Glasgow to Nelson.' "I agree with the gentleman," said an aged Scot, arising. "But I would make an addition. We all know that from the town of Glasgow to that of Nelson is six miles, and therefore I would affix to the monument, after the words, 'Glasgow to Nelson,' the addition, 'six miles,' and then our monument would serve two purposes."

"Well, maybe it is," returned Abner. "But I didn't mean for it to be. I heard you praise up certain papers for the good they was a-doin' on. I saw no harm in mentionin' Abner's method. I reckon it's just a case of

"Say that, Pole," Abner called out.

The shoe belt on another foot. I was goin' to tell you how this misfortune of Alf's had affected Pole. He's been like a crazy man ever since it happened. It's been all Alan could do to keep 'im from goin' to Atlanta an' chokin' the life out of Perkins. Pole got so mad when he wouldn't let 'im go that he went off cussin' 'im for all he was worth. I wonder what sort of a denunciation a man will fit into that 'll cuss his best friends black an' blue because they won't let 'im fight for 'im. You see, he'll fight, an' if he ever does for the ranks above he'll do the work of ten men when their blood is up. I see 'im in a row once during election when he was leggit for a friend of his'n. He stood right at the polls an' wanted to slug every man that voted ag'in 'im. He knocked three men's teeth down their throats an' limped up two more so that they looked like they had on false faces.

Here the preacher permitted himself to laugh. Being a healthy man himself, his heart warmed toward a man who seemed to be torn to that sort of thing.

"He looks like he could do a sight of it," was his comment.

At this juncture the subject of the conversation came round the house, carrying a big piece of bacon wrapped in a tow crash bag.

"Say that, Pole," Abner called out to the long, lank fellow. "We are agoin' to have parochin' at Rock Creek tomorrow. You'd better have a shirt washed an' hung out to dry. They are a-beathin' the bushes for yore sort."

Pole looked at the preacher and then at his long, thick hair from his heavy eyebrows.

"I've been a-waitin' to see of meetin' ever 'd you any good, Uncle Ab," he laughed. "They tell me the more you go the wuss you git to be. Neil Filmore said yother day if you didn't quit shootin' off yore mouth they'd give you a trial in meetin'."

Abner laughed good naturedly as he spat over the edge of the veranda floor to the ground.

"That's been talked, I know, Pole," he said, "but they don't mean it. They all know how to take my fun. But you come on to meetin'." It will do you good.

"Well, maybe I will," promised Pole. And he came to the steps, and, putting his hand down, he bent toward them.

"It's a powerful hard matter to live exactly what's right an' what's wrong in some things," he said. "Now, look, beer." Throwing his hand down into the pocket of his trousers, he drew out a piece of quartz rock, with a lump of yellow gold about the size of a pea half imbedded in it. "That that's parochin' gold. I got it this way: A feller that used to be my right hand in my still business left me when I swore off an' went over to Halong to work in them mines. Yother day he was back on a visit, an' he give me this chunk an' said he'd found it. Now, I know in reason that he nabbed it while he was at work, but I don't think I'd have a right to report it to the mine's company, an' so I'm just obliged to receive stolen goods. It ain't worth more'n a dollar, they tell me, an' I'll hang on to it. I reckon, rather 'n have a laborin' man discharged from a job. I'm tryin' my level best to live up to the line now, an' I don't know how to manage such a thing as that. I've come to the conclusion that no harm will be done no how, because miners ain't too well paid anyway, an' if I just keep it an' don't git no good out of it I won't be in it any more 'n if I'd never got hold of the blamed thing."

"But the law, Brother Baker," said Pole solemnly. "Without the law we'd be an awful lot of people, an' every man ort to uphold it. Remember the things that are Caesar's unto Caesar."

Pole's face was blank for a moment, and Abner came to his rescue with a broad smile and sudden laugh.

"I reckon you don't remember him, Pole," he said. "He's dead. He was a nigger that used to belong to old man Throgmorton. In the cave. He used to be such an awful thief during slavery days that it got to be a common sayin' that everything lyin' round about as well he his'n, fer he'd take it sooner or later anyways."

"I've heard of that nigger," said Pole, much to the preacher's disgust, which grew as Pole continued: "Well, they say a feller that knows the law is broke an' don't report it is as guilty as the man who does the breakin'." Now, Mr. Pole, you know how I come by this nugget, an' if you want to do your full duty you'll ride over to Halong an' report it to the right parties. I can't afford the trip."

Abner laughed out at this and then forced a serious look on his face. "That's what you rally ort to do, Brother Pole," he said. "Them Cassars over there ain't appreciate it."

Then Mrs. Bishop came out to shake hands with the preacher and invited him to go to his room to wash his face and hands. As the tall man followed his hostess away Abner winked slyly at Pole and laughed under his long, scrawny hand.

"Uncle Ab, you ort to be killed," smiled Pole. "You've been settin' hear the last half hour talkin' 'bout at that feller, an' you know it. Well, I'm goin' on home. Sally's a goin' to fry some of this truck for me, an' I'm as hungry as a bear."

A few minutes after he had gone Pole came out of his room and sat down in his chair again. "That seems to be a sorer bright young man," he remarked.

"As bright as a new dollar," returned Abner in a tone of warm admiration. "Did you notice that big, wedge shaped head of his'n? It's plumb full of brains. One day a feller come down to Filmore's store. He made a business of feedin' of hands an' writin' out charts at 25 cents apiece. He didn't waste much time on the rest of the seals he examined, but when he got to Pole's mouth he talked for a good hour. I never heard the like. He said of his talents had been properly directed Pole would 'a' made a big public man. He said he hadn't run across such a head in a month of Sundays. He was right, you bet, an' every one of the seven brats Pole's got 's just as peart as he is. They are a growin' up in intellect an' rage too. I wish I could make some of 'em down the Yankees that are a-singin' their money down here an' buildin' fine schools to educate niggers an' neglectin' their own race because it fit ag'in 'em. You cussin' hardly bent him into a nigger's hand, an' it'd be only common sense to spend money what it'd do the most good. I ain't got nothin' ag'in a nigger bein' hard to read an' write, but I can't stomach their bein' forced ahead of deservin' white folks' money to the Lord command. Them kind of Yankees is the same sort that makes pets of dogs an' pampers 'em up when pore white children is in need of food an' affection."

"Pole looks like he had natural capacity," said Pole. He was fond of conversing with Abner on any topic except that of religious matters.

"He'd make a bang up detective," laughed Abner. "One day I was at Filmore's store. Not sometimes, when he's rushed, gits Pole to clerk for 'im because he's quick at figures. It happened that Pole had the store to 'hater one day when Neil had gone off to cut down a bee tree with a pail of molasses an' a triflin' feller come in an' begun to nose about. An' when Pole's back was turned he stole a pocket book out of the show-case. I reckon Pole didn't like his toes much any more as soon as the squint had gone in him to look about to see of best trick he could. All at once he raised the pocket book an' told Neil that I git it. He was mighty high when he told it, but he couldn't really say it. About a week after that I was at the same feller come down to Filmore's store on his business. Me an' Neil was both there, an' he lusted us in the back room an' told us to stay there. He said he was goin' to find out of the feller who stole the book. Neil was afraid of a man that tried to prevent 'im, but he just went of his back an' shut the door on us. I got 'im a crack in the partition. I found me a knothole.

"Pole lusted an' come in an' sat down on the floor, but Pole stopped 'im."

"I'm goin' to the show-case," he said. "I want to show you somethin'." The feller went, an' I seed Pole yank out the box 'at had the rest of the pocket books in it. 'Look y' hear,' Pole said in a loud, steady voice—you could 'a' heard 'im down the creek—'look y' hear. The regular price of these books is fifty cents; that's what we sell 'em for; but you've got to run yore hand down in yore pocket an' give me a dollar for one quicker 'n you ever made a trade in yore life."

"What do you mean?" the feller said.

"I mean exactly what I said, an' you are a-losin' time," said Pole, talkin' louder an' louder. "The price is fifty cents; but you got to gi' me a dollar fer one. Haul 'er out, my friend; haul 'er out! It'll be the cheapest thing you ever bought in yore life!"

"The feller was as white as a sheet. He gulped two or three times 'fore he spoke; then he said: 'I know what you think. You think I took one yother day when I was lookin' in the show-case, but you are mistaken.'"

"I never said a word about you takin' one," Pole yelled at 'im, "but you'd better yank out that dollar an' buy one. You need it!"

The feller did it. I heard the money clink as he laid it on the glass, an' I knowed he was convicted.

"They are only worth 50 cents," he said kinder faintlike.

"Yore a liar," Pole yelled at 'im, "fer you've just paid a dollar for one on yore own account. Now I'll just give you two minutes to straddle that mule. If you don't, I'll take you to the sheriff myself, you thief."

"I've always done my tradin' hear," said the feller, thinkin' that 'd sorter pacify Pole, but he said: "Yes, an' yore stealin', too. I reckon, you black livered feller. Get out, git out!"

"Me 'n' Neil come in when the feller 'd gone, but Pole was actually too mad to speak. He got off too darned light," he said after awhile. "I could 'a' sold 'im a big bill of goods at 100 per cent profit, fer he had plenty of money. Now he's ridin' off laughin' at me!"

CHAPTER X.

NEIL FILMORE'S store was about half a mile from Bishop's house, at the crossing of the Darley road and another leading into east Tennessee. Alan had gone down there one day to engage white labor to work in his growing cotton, negroes being scarce owing to the tendency of that race to flock into the towns. With the aid of Pole Baker, who was clerking that day for Filmore, he soon employed the men he wanted and started to walk back home. On the way he was overtaken by his uncle, who was returning from Darley in his wagon.

"Hold on, that!" the old man called out. "If you are a-goin' home, I'll rest yore legs."

Alan smiled as he climbed up into the seat by the old man.

"I shall certainly appreciate it," he said. "I'm tired out today."

"I sorter thought you looked flabbergasted," returned Abner as he swung his whip over the backs of his sleek horses. "Well, I reckon I could afford to give you a ride. I hopped that cuss Pole three miles givin' yother way. He had the cheek to yell at me from Huddersham's ginhouse an' axed me of I'd haul 'im. Then he kept me waitin' till he'd holt prayer an' read to the family."

"You don't seem to like 'im," said Alan. "I've noticed that for some time."

"I reckon I don't to any great extent," said Abner, chucking to his third horse. "But it ain't rally to my credit. A feller's wrong somethin', Alan, that allows himself to hate anything the Lord ever made. I've struggled agin that proposition for twenty-five year. All this time about the devil makin' the bad an' the Lord makin' the good is a-burnin' in me. Bad niggers was made 'fer the good, or jumped from his high seat, or he'd never preferred a fork to a nap. I've tuck notice, too, that the worst things I ever seed was sometimes at the feet of the best. Maybe I'm a-burnin', but a cuss of it will make a daisy better 'n any in the field. Pole makes me gals sometimes. But as nigger as he is, twixt the eyes he may do some good. I reckon that hill fire sermon he gave us last August made some of the crowd went on a life of their meanness. I'd 'a' been more merciful on such a hot day though. He ought 'a' reserved that language for some cold day in December when the stove fires wouldn't work. If I'd 'a' been agoin' to tell about future torment that hot day, I'd 'a' said that every bit soul was made to set on a cuss of lee in a windy spot through all eternity, an' I'd 'a' started out by singin' 'On Greenland's Icy Mountain.' But that ain't what I axed you to git in my wagon fer."

"You didn't intend to try to convert me then?"

REAL QUALITIES OF WORTH.

Loyalty, Charity and Generosity Most to Be Praised.

As a man grows older he perceives that the moral qualities are worth a good deal more in friendship than the intellectual qualities, and that no brilliancy of mind, no charm of conversation can make up for lack of loyalty, clarity and generosity in social intercourse. Young men of brains are disposed to value mainly mental power in other people, and it is a human quality to forgive much in man unknown to genius. This is a false appreciation of the respective values of mentality and the moral qualities. The time comes when a man learns that unselfishness and affection are better in wife or friend than intellectual power accompanied by intense self-love. Fortunate the man who does not come to this knowledge too late.—San Francisco Bulletin.
